(ii) Classification and measurement

Financial assets comprise all of the company's current assets with the exception of deferred tax assets, and financial liabilities comprise all of the company's creditors with the exception of deferred tax liabilities.

The company classifies financial assets into the below categories on the basis of both the company's business model for managing financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. The business model reflects how the company manages particular groups of assets in order to generate future cash flows. Where the business model is to hold the assets to collect contractual cash flows, the company subsequently assesses whether the cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest.

Financial assets measured at amortised cost

Financial assets that are held for the collection of contractual cash flows and have cash flows that represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost, unless they are designated at fair value through profit or loss. The company considers whether the cash flows represent basic lending arrangements and where contractual terms introduce exposure to risk or volatility inconsistent with a basic tending arrangement, the financial asset is classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial assets measured at amortised cost are initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs and subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial instrument and allocating the interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash recipts through the expected life of the financial asset or, when appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount of the financial asset. When calculating the effective interest rate, the company estimates cash flows considering all contractual terms of the financial asset but does not consider future credit losses. All finance income is recognised in the profit and loss account.

Financial assets designated at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost, which constitute current investments (including an investment in associate undertaking), are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Such financial assets are initially measured at fair value and subsequently at fair value through profit or loss, with gains or losses recognised in net revenues on financial instruments at fair value.

Investment in associate undertaking is recorded at fair value in line with IFRS9, as permitted by IAS 28 'Investments' in Associates and Joint Ventures'. Investment in associate undertaking is measured in the balance sheet at fair value and all subsequent gains or losses are recognised in the consolidated profit and loss account.

Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost

Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method (see above). Finance costs, including discounts allowed on issue, are recorded in interest payable and similar expenses.

(iii) Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the balance sheet where

- (i) currently a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts; and
- (ii) intent to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Where these conditions are not met, financial assets and financial liabilities are presented on a gross basis on the balance sheet.

h Current and deformed toxation

The tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognised in the profit and loss account.

Current tax is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the company operates and generates taxable income.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of all temporary differences that have originated, but not reversed at the balance sheet date, where transactions or events have occurred by that date that will result in an obligation to pay more tax or a right to pay less tax in the future with the following exceptions:

- (i) Deferred tax liabilities are recognised only to the extent that the directors consider that it is more likely than not that there will be suitable taxable profits from which the future reversal of the underlying temporary differences can be deducted.
- (ii) Deferred tax is measured on an undiscounted basis at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the years in which temporary differences reverse, based on tax rates and laws enacted or substantively enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date.

i. Share capital

Ordinary share capital is classified as equity.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts recognised in these financial statements. The nature of estimation means that actual outcomes could differ from those estimates. The following judgement has had the most significant effect on amounts recognised in the financial statements:

a. Fair value measurement

Certain of the company's financial assets include significant unobservable inputs (i.e. level 3). See note 19 for information about the carrying value, valuation techniques and significant inputs of these instruments.

b. Deferred taxation

The company has recognised a deferred tax liability (see note 11) which requires judgement in determining the expected future tax liability of the company. In so doing management has considered the relevant tax law and has exercised judgement for the recognition of the estimated future liability.

The table below presents a reconciliation between tax on profit and the amount calculated by applying the weighted average rate of U.K., corporation tax applicable to the company for the year of 19.0% (2018: 19.0%) to the profit before taxation

| Total tax on profit   | 1,254,752        | 6,172,495        |

The company has carry forward capital losses of £3.7 million (31 December 2018: £3.7 million), for which no deferred tax asset has been recognised in the financial statements as there is uncertainty whether the company will generate suitable taxable profits in the future against which the deferred tax asset can be recovered.

The company has surrendered its losses for the current year under group relief arrangements.

The U.K. government announced in its budget on March 11, 2020 that the U.K. corporation tax main rate, which was due to decrease from 19.0% to 17.0% from April 1, 2020, will now remain at 19.0%. This will result in the U.K. corporation tax rate applicable to the company remaining at 19.0% from April 1, 2020. The company did not include this rate increase in its measurement of deferred tax balances as it was not substantively enacted as of December 2019. If this rate change were to have been substantively enacted as of December 2019, then the company's deferred tax liability would have been higher by $1.2 million which would have been recognised in the profit and loss account.

18. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The company monitors its capital on an ongoing basis. The company's objective is to be prudently capitalised in terms of the amount and composition of its equity base compared to the company's risk exposures. The appropriate level and composition of equity capital is determined by considering multiple factors including the business environment, conditions in the financial markets and assessments of potential future losses due to adverse changes in market environment.

The company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.

The directors consider that the most important components of the company's financial risk are market risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The company, as part of a global group, adheres to global risk management policies and procedures.

a. Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss in value of investments, as well as certain other financial assets and financial liabilities; due to changes in market conditions. Risks are monitored and controlled through strong firmwide oversight and independent control and support functions across the company's business. Relevant market risks for the company are interest rate risk, currency risk and equity price risk.

Interest rate risk results from exposures to changes in level, slope and curvature of yield curves, volatilities of interest rates and credit spreads.

If interest rates had been 0.5 percent higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the company's profit before taxation for the year ended 31 December 2019 would not have been materially affected. This has been determined by assuming that the company's exposure to interest rate risk at balance sheet date was consistent for the whole year.

Currency risk results from exposures to changes in spot prices, forward prices and volatilities of currency rates.

The company's functional currency is the U.S. dollar. At 31 December 2019, the company had no material net exposures to other currencies (31 December 2018: USSnil).

a. Market risk (continued)

Equity price risk arises from exposures to changes in prices and interest rate volatilities of individual investments. The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the company's exposure to equity price risk at the balance sheet date. If equity values had been 10 per cent higher/lower, profit before taxation for the period ended 31 December 2019 would increase/decrease by US$40.7 million (31 December 2018: US$39.3 million) as a result of the changes in fair value.

b. Credit risk

Credit risk represents the potential for loss due to the default or deterioration in the credit quality of a counterparty. Credit risk is managed by reviewing the credit quality of the counterparties and reviewing, if applicable, the underlying collateral against which the financial assets are secured. The company's maximum exposure to credit risk is equivalent to the carrying value of its financial assets listed below as at 31 December 2019 and 31 December 2018. The company's credit exposures are described further below:

Cash at hank and in hand. Cash at bank and in hand include both interest-bearing and non-interest-bearing deposits. To mitigate the risk of credit loss, the company places substantially all of its deposits with highly-rated banks.

Debtors. The company is exposed to credit risk from its amounts due from group undertakings, for which the credit risk is considered minimal. As at 31 December 2019, the company had no debtors past due (31 December 2018; nil).

c. Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the company does not have sufficient cash or collateral to make payments to its counterparties or customers as they fall due. The company manages its liquidity risk in accordance with GS Group's comprehensive and conservative set of liquidity and funding policies to address both company specific and broader industry or market liquidity events.

b. Fair value hierarchy

FRS 101 has a three level fair value hierarchy for disclosure of fair value measurements. The fair value hierarchy prioritises inputs to the valuation techniques used to measure fair value, giving the highest priority to level 1 inputs and lowest priority to level 3 inputs. A financial instrument's level in the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to its fair value measurement.

The fair value hierarchy is as follows:

- Level 1 Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets to which GS Group has access at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities.
- . Level 2 Inputs to valuation techniques are observable, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 One or more inputs to valuation techniques are significant and unobservable

The fair values for substantially all of the company's financial assets and financial liabilities are based on observable prices and inputs and are classified in levels 1 and 2 of the fair value hierarchy. Certain level 2 and level 3 financial assets and financial liabilities may require appropriate valuation adjustments that a market participant would require to arrive at fair value for factors such as counterparry and the company's and GS Group's credit quality, funding risk, transfer restrictions, liquidity and bid/offer spreads. Valuation adjustments are generally based on market evidence.

c. Valuation techniques and significant inputs

Valuation techniques and significant inputs for each level of the fair value hierarchy include:

- Level 1 financial instruments are valued using quoted prices for identical unrestricted instruments in active markets. The company defines active markets for financial instruments based on both average daily trading volume and number of days with trading activity.
- Level 2 financial instruments can be verified to quoted prices, recent trading activity for identical or similar instruments, broker or dealer quotations or alternative pricing sources with reasonable levels of price transparency. Consideration is given to the nature of the quotations (e.g. indicative or firm) and the relationship of recent market activity to the prices provided from alternative pricing sources.
  - Valuation adjustments are typically made to level 2 financial instruments (i) if the financial instrument is subject to transfer restrictions and/or (ii) for other premiums and liquidity discounts that a market participant would require to arrive at fair value. Valuation adjustments are generally based on market evidence.
- Level 3 financial instruments have one or more significant valuation inputs that are not observable. Absent evidence to the contrary, level 3 financial instruments are initially valued at transaction price, which is considered to be the best initial estimate of fair value, while, Subsequently, the company uses other methodologies to determine fair value, which vary based on the type of instrument. Valuation inputs and assumptions are changed when corroborated by substantive observable evidence, including values realised on sales of financial assers.

g. Fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities valued using techniques that incorporate unobservable inputs

The fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities may be determined in whole or part using a valuation technique based on assumptions that are not supported by prices from observable market transactions in the same instrument or based on available observable market data and changing these assumptions will change the resultant estimate of fair value.

The potential impact of using reasonable possible alternative assumptions for the valuation, including significant unobservable inputs, has been quantified as of 31 December 2019, as approximately US$$2.0 million (31 December 2018: US$17.0 million) for favourable changes and US$26.0 million (31 December 2018: US$34.0 million) for unfavourable changes.

h. Fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities not measured at fair value

The company has US$11.7 million (31 December 2018: US$5.9 million) of current financial assets and US$12.9 million (31 December 2018: US$19.6 million) of current financial liabilities that are not measured at fair value. Given the short-term nature of these instruments, their carrying amounts in the balance sheet are a reasonable approximation of fair value.

The company has USS51.8 million (31 December 2018: USS76.9 million) of financial assets and USS323.2 million (31 December 2018: USS328.0 million) of financial liabilities due after more than one year that are not measured at fair value and relate to long-term intercompany lendings and borrowings. The interest rates associated with such lendings and borrowings are variable in nature and approximate prevailing market interest rates for instruments with similar terms and characteristics. As such, the carrying amounts in the balance sheet are a reasonable approximation of fair value.
