STATEMENT OF DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES

The directors are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- (a) select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- (b) make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- (c) state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed; and
- (d) prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

A summary of the principal accounting policies, all of which have been applied consistently throughout the year and the preceding period, is set out below.

(a) Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with applicable United Kingdom law and accounting standards.

(b) Cash flow statement

Under the provisions of Financial Reporting Standard 1 Cash Flow Statements (Revised 1996), should the company have had any cash resources, it would not have prepared a cash flow statement because its ultimate parent undertaking, Société Générale produces publicly available consolidated financial statements which contain a cash flow statement.

(c) Related party disclosures

As the company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Société Générale Investments (U.K.) Limited, the company has taken advantage of the exemption contained in Financial Reporting Standard 8 Related Party Disclosures and therefore has not disclosed transactions or balances with entities which form part of the group (or investees of the group qualifying as related parties). There are no other related party transactions requiring disclosure.

2. TAXATION

There is no tax charge for the year because the company did not trade. There is no liability for deferred tax so accordingly no provision has been made.

3. DEBTORS

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

5. DIRECTORS' EMOLUMENTS

The directors received no emoluments for services to the company or Société Générale Investments (U.K.) Limited during the year (2015: £nil).

None of the directors had any material interest in any contract in relation to the business of the group.

6. HOLDING COMPANY

The company is a subsidiary of Société Générale Investments (U.K.) Limited which is incorporated in Great Britain and registered in England and Wales.

The company's ultimate holding company, controlling party and parent of the smallest and largest group for which group accounts are prepared is Société Générale, which is incorporated in France. Copies of the group accounts of Société Générale are available from the registered office at 29, Boulevard Haussmann, 75009 Paris, France.

7. AUDITORS

Members have not required the company to obtain an audit in accordance with section 476 of the Companies Act 2006.
