Directors' interests

None of the directors have any beneficial interest in the Company. The Company is a subsidiary of a Company incorporated outside England and Wales. The ultimate holding Company is a body corporate incorporated outside England and Wales. The directors are not required to notify the Company of any interests in shares of that or any other body incorporated outside England and Wales.

Statement of directors' responsibilities

The directors are responsible for preparing the Strategic Report, Directors' Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the directors have prepared the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including the transitional relief provisions for transition to Financial Reporting Standard ("FRS") 102 which states that "a Company within the Companies Act definition of a dormant Company can elect to retain its accounting policies for reported assets, liabilities and equity at the date of transition to this FRS until there is any change to those balances or the Company takes on any new transactions".

Under Company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for the year.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable Accounting Standards, comprising FRS 102 have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Company will continue in business.

The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The directors are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Company's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006.

Notes to the financial statements

1. General Information

The Company is incorporated and domiciled in England and Wales. The Company's immediate parent undertaking is JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A., a national banking association organized and existing under the laws of United States of America. The Company's ultimate parent undertaking and the parent undertaking of the only group in which the results of the Company are consolidated, is JPMorgan Chase & Co. (the "Firm" or "JPMorgan Chase"), which is incorporated in the state of Delaware in the United States of America. The consolidated financial statements of the Firm can be obtained from the Company's registered office at 25 Bank Street, Canary Wharf, London, E14 5JP, England and Wales.

Principal activity

The Company holds securities in its name in a fiduciary capacity.

The Company has not traded during the current and previous years and therefore has made neither a profit nor a loss, consequently no income statement is presented. Furthermore there have been no recognised gains or losses or movements in shareholders' funds during the year.

2. Basis of Preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" ("FRS 102"). In preparing these financial statements, the Company, which is dormant as defined within the Companies Act 2006, has elected to apply the FRS 102 dormant Company exemption and retain its accounting policies for reported assets, liabilities and equity at the transition date until such time that there is a change to those balances or the Company enters into new transactions.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 as applicable to Companies under FRS 102.

3. Critical accounting estimates and judgements

The preparation of financial statements generally requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts recognised in the financial statements. Due to the nature of business undertaken by the Company, no significant accounting estimates or judgements were required in preparation of these financial statements.

4. Directors' emoluments and staff costs

The directors are employees of other Companies in the Firm and all expenses, including remuneration, are paid by those Companies and not recharged.

The directors do not consider that a significant element of their remuneration relates to the Company for the current financial year (2018: £nil).

The Company had no employees at any time during the year (2018: none).

5. Results for the year

The Company has not traded during the year ended 31 December 2019 and has made neither profit nor loss.
